MEN IN SQUAD TELL STORY

El Paso, Tex., March 21.—Mexicans arriving at Juarez from the south today declared that they were a part of a firing squad which executed Governor Gonzales, Governor of Chihuahua, under the Mexican government's notorious "fugitive law," these Mexicans declare.

The Chihuahua Governor, his self-proclaimed executioners, were seen leaving the town of Cananea, where he was being held, on a train for Juarez, arriving at Juarez while the firing squad was in the act of executing him. The Governor was shot in the back of the head, and the bullet entered his brain.

Gonzales had been missing since his removal from Chihuahua, nearly three weeks ago. He was well known to the American people before the revolution, being a cattle broker of Chihuahua City. He was educated at Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind.

M'COMBS CANNOT AFFORD TO ACCEPT AMBASSADORSHIP

Maurice Francis Egan, a minister to Denmark.

Joseph E. Willard, of Virginia; Thomas H. Birch, of New Jersey, and Frederick C. Penfield, of New York, are also regarded as certain to be ministers in the foreign service.

The President took up chiefly routine matters with his Cabinet at the meeting today. Tomorrow he will meet the Illinois Vice Commission.

President Wilson late today sent the following message to King Constantine of Greece:

"On this sad occasion, on the death of your illustrious father, I extend heartfelt sympathy, and I wish to express my earnest hope that your beneficent reign will mark an era of great prosperity. I also offer to Your Majesty the assurances of my highest regards and good wishes."

Considers Jersey Politics.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, March 21.—In addition to considering important affairs of state today, President Wilson also spent a large amount of time conferring with Governor Fielder and other New Jerseyans concerning State politics.

The Governor and Senator Hughes arrived at the White House shortly after noon and were admitted to conference with the President at the close of Cabinet meeting. Later they were joined by J. Warren Davis, Democratic leader of the New Jersey Senate and Chairman of the State Democratic Committee.

Governor Fielder told the chief executive that he thought that the "jury reform" bill would pass the Legislature without the referendum, a feature which is not approved by the President.

It was rationally announced today that former Senator Obadiah Gardner, of Maine, will get the collectorship of the port of Portland, Maine, the largest of patronage in his State. Gardner was prominently mentioned as Secretary of Agriculture previous to March 4, but it is understood that he asked for the collectorship and that he is almost certain to get it.

Attorney General McRynolds announced after the Cabinet meeting today that J. L. Camp, of San Antonio, Texas, has been appointed United States Attorney for the Western District of Texas. This is the first recess appointment to be made by the President.

The chief executive today signed an executive order nullifying an order issued by President Taft about a month before he left office. To-day's order changes the South Dakota land office from Carter back to Gregory, where it was placed at the instance of former Senator Gamble. The President made the change today at the special request of a number of prominent South Dakotans.

Among the President's callers today was Senator Bacon, of Georgia, who congratulated the chief executive on his Chinese loan statement, which practically killed "dollar diplomacy" against the Chinese.

Although no positive diplomatic announcements were made at the White House today, it became known that the following men have had the once intended tendered to them and the White House is waiting word of their acceptance or declination:

Charles W. Elliot, to Great Britain; Wm. F. McCombs, to France; Professor Henry H. Fine, to Germany; George W. Guthrie, to Mexico; John R. Mott, to China.

Gibson Wants Place.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, March 21.—Preston Gibson, society man and playwright, is a candidate to succeed Chandler Hale as third assistant Secretary of State.

In recent years the third assistant Secretary of State has become an important functionary of the department. All the social formalities and situations involving diplomatic etiquette are in his hands, on numerous occasions questions of precedence between representatives of foreign nations to this country have been passed on by him.

When a new ambassador or a distinguished foreign visitor of any type arrives in Washington, the third assistant Secretary of State is detailed to welcome him to the city in the name of the government and arrange for his entertainment while here.

The candidacy of Mr. Gibson for the place has created much comment in Washington. He is a Democrat, a nephew of Chief Justice White, of the United States Supreme Court, and a son of former Senator Gibson, of Louisiana.

Attachment Issued.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 21.—The jewelry firm of Black, Starr & Frost today obtained a Supreme Court attachment against Preston Gibson, the Washington society leader, for the sum of $1,846. This amount is alleged to be due on a note for $2,548, made in February, 1912.

DIVORCE IS DENIED

Professor Reser and Wife Must Try to Get Along Together.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 21.—The parties were married after an acquaintance and courtship lasting over twenty years. Both were in middle age when they married. It may be that they waited too long. In any event, at best, incompatibility has been shown.

said Justice Kelley, of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn, in dismissing today the suit brought by Professor Edward Newton Reser for annulment of his marriage to Mrs. Martha Reser.

The divorce laws in this State do not accept incompatibility as sufficient grounds for dissolving the marriage bonds. Professor Reser is an art teacher in a Brooklyn high school.

Condition Improved.

New York, March 21.—It was announced to-night by Dr. Herman M. Biggs that there had been a slight improvement in Levi P. Morton's condition during the day. He has been critically ill at his home in Fifth Avenue for the last two weeks.

DRAMATIC SCENE ENACTED IN COURT

Mrs. Randolph Fitzhugh, Held to Grand Jury, Charges Persecution.

SHE IS ACCUSED OF THEFT

Admits That She Is Catherine Fennell, of Richmond and Washington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 21.—There was another intensely dramatic scene in Jefferson Market Court today, when "Mrs. Randolph Fitzhugh," alias Mrs. Albert S. Northrup, was arraigned on a charge of vagrancy, and under sharp cross-examination admitted that she was Catherine Fennell.

As the young woman was being led to the stand, assisted by two doctors from Bellevue Hospital, Miss Dorothy Pliske and Miss Edna Irene Munsey, an actress, appeared in court and charged the prisoner with grand larceny in the first and second degree.

Magistrate Freschi dismissed the vagrancy charge and arraigned the woman on the new complaint fully. At the conclusion of seven hours' testimony she was held in $2,000 bail for the grand jury on a charge of grand larceny in the first degree on Miss Pliske's complaint and $1,000 bail for larceny in the second degree on the complaint of Miss Munsey.

Second Charlotte Corday.
Before any questions were put to her, the accused woman asked permission to make a statement. When Magistrate Freschi granted her request, she said:

"You can torture me all that you wish. I am a woman, and women have always borne a great deal. I am not afraid of suffering. I am caught in a trap here, but you cannot and will not make me tell you anything. Beyond saying that I am another Charlotte Corday, I am fighting for a cause, and I shall keep on fighting until you manage to kill me."

The judge halted her and said he would not require her to answer such questions that would tend to incriminate or degrade her, but must know her full name, and he would permit also a charge of perjury to stand against her.

District Attorney Dickinson then cross-examined her and finally wrung from her the fact that she was Catherine Fennell, of Richmond and Washington, D. C., and that she was known to the police under that name. She admitted that she had heard that Albert S. Northrup was a woman, but that she was married and had three children of his own, but she declared that he had also married her and had sent her money. In corroborating this statement her attorney produced a letter from Joseph Salomon, a Washington lawyer and Mr. Northrup's counsel, saying that he inclosed a certificate of her marriage to him. But the letter was not held as conclusive evidence.

The steamer Somerset, also of the Merchants and Miners' line, heard the Dorchester's calls for assistance late yesterday afternoon and went to her aid. The Dorchester was disabled until the storm abated, and then conveyed her to Norfolk.

After landing the passengers the Dorchester went to Newport News, where she will go to the dock to be surveyed. The passengers are scheduled to leave for Savannah and Jacksonville on the steamer Parthian, which is in from Baltimore tomorrow morning.

STANDS SIDEWAYS, ESCAPES DEATH

Tobacco Dealer Dares Not Move While Trains Are Rushing By.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Hartford, Conn., March 21.—With a few insignificant grease spots on his coat tails as the only evidence of a barrowing experience, William Scott, a tobacco dealer, miraculously escaped death at a railroad crossing this evening by calmly standing sideways as express trains rushed past him in a blinding rain.

Scott, a native of Columbia, a tobacco dealer, miraculously escaped death at a railroad crossing this evening by calmly standing sideways as express trains rushed past him in a blinding rain.

He was struck by one of the trains and ground to pieces. Before they discovered his plight the trains were almost on the men, who were walking from one side of the grade crossing to the other. Scott alone realized there was no time to get out of the way of the on-rushing locomotives, and decided to take his chances, standing between the tracks.

There was a blinding flash of headlights, a roar and suffocating blast of dust for what seemed an hour, said Scott later. "I knew I must not move or I would be killed in either way, and so I escaped with just this grain of wheat on my coat was sucked out by the engine drivers. When the gate tender saw me as he came out to pick up poor Ryan's body, the most amazed person you ever saw. He thought I, too, had been killed."

Ryan's body was found 200 yards down the tracks and was horribly mangled.

Word was received to-night from Binghamton that Ryan's wife was on her way here to take charge of the body.

Good Friday Observed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, March 21.—From the White House to the most frivolous of the city, the society observed Good Friday religiously. No social event of any character took place here. Mrs. Wilson and her daughters attended church, Miss Margaret Wilson going to the historic St. John's Church, the little church across the park, with Miss Isabelle Hagner, Mrs. Wilson's secretary.

After the trial, the grand jury charged with larceny, and she was held in $2,000 for the grand jury.

Held for Grand Jury.

When this announcement was made she staggered to her feet and said that she was holding $2,000 unless some body would take her baby as security for that sum, but this statement was not held as conclusive evidence.

Miss Munsey testified that on November 21st she had attended the Church of the Transfiguration, and that she went to the altar to partake of communion she left her mesh bag containing the diamond bracelet in the pew. When she returned it was gone. She said that a woman in black, wearing a veil and black eyes, had taken her in a peculiar way, but she was unable to identify that woman as being the prisoner.

When the bracelet was offered in evidence the pawnbroker's clerk identified it as being that pawned in his shop by Mrs. Fitzhugh, whose address was given as the Hotel Wolcott. The defendant had previously admitted living at the Wolcott about the time the bracelet was pawned. Upon this testimony Mrs. Fitzhugh was held in $1,000 for the grand jury charged with larceny in the second degree.

When this decision was reached the woman gave up completely, and supported by two attendants, attempted another dramatic scene. Facing the judge with blazing eyes, she said:

"This is all persecution, pure and simple. There are people who want to get me away from here. They are succeeding. There are people right in this city, high in society, who could come forward right now and clear me in ten minutes. I cannot appear to this court or to these spectators in the right light because it is a case of a woman against a woman.
